

OAKLEIGH GRAMMAR

EMPOWERING YOUNG MINDS

Dear Friends,

I hope you can join me and other passionate supporters of Oakleigh Grammar at the school's annual Taverna Night to be held on Saturday 21 October 2017.

The Business Network is sponsoring this event and it solidifies our commitment and partnership with the Parents' Association.

The event will definitely be a sell-out and I encourage you all to book your tables soon to make sure you avoid disappointment and to take advantage of the early bird pricing.

Given the hustle and bustle of life in the working world, it is important that we take the opportunity to let our hair down (for those who have it!) and enjoy the company of our nearest and dearest.

As stated by Dr Stephen R Covey, whose teachings underpin the Leader in Me program at Oakleigh Grammar, “most of us spend too much time on what is urgent and not enough time on what is important”.

I cannot reiterate the importance of networking and developing positive relationships with other stakeholders in the wider school community.

Enjoy a sumptuous Greek banquet with unlimited beer, wine and soft drink, strut your moves on the dancefloor and otherwise soak up the live music performance of the Rythmos band. I am told that the Parents' Association aim to re-create the full Taverna experience perhaps without the broken plates!

I hope to meet as many of you as possible for what will be a night to remember!

Best regards,
Vic Rajah BA, LLB (Hons)
